

Startup Funding Forum on October 18 in Santa Fe

October 1, 2012

Coronado Ventures Forum will present “Early-Stage Fundraising Options for Founders in New Mexico” on October 18 at 6 p.m. in Santa Fe. at the Eldorado Hotel. Guest panelists will include traditional venture capitalists, and investment "angels" who will discuss capital available through the national labs and government sources. The forum costs $22.50 in advance or $25 at the door.

Todd Hand, managing partner of the Talent Capital Group, will serve as moderator for the evening. Panelists include Katie Szczepaniak Rice, from Epic Ventures; Belinda Snyder, from the Lab’s Technology Transfer Division; Lem Hunter, with Vibrant; and F. Leroy Pacheco with The Loan Fund.

For more information on the panelists and to register, go to <http://www.cvf-nm.org/>.

Los Alamos National Laboratory is a sponsor of the Coronado Ventures Forum.

